VOL. LXX, No. 1. WHOLE No. 369. | JANUARY, 1888. | FIFTH SERIES, Vol. IV, No. 1.

METHODIST REVIEW.

(BIMONTHLY.)

CONTENTS.

PAGE

I. BISHOP WILLIAM LOGAN HARRIS 9
Rev. JAMES M. BUCKLEY, D.D., Editor of The Christian Advocate, New York.

II. ON SOME CONTROVERTED POINTS IN THE EXPOSITION OF THE SEVENTH CHAPTER OF ROMANS 29
Rev. Dr. HENRY A. BUTTZ, President of Drew Theological Seminary, Madison, N. J.

III. CHURCH UNION AND ANGLICAN ORDINATION 45
Rev. T. B. NEELY, Ph.D., D.D., Pottsville, Pa.

IV. JABEZ BUNTING, D.D 66
Rev. EDWARD BARRASS, M.A., Hampton, Ontario, Canada.

V. EPISCOPAL FUNCTIONS IN METHODISM 86
Rev. GEORGE P. MAINS, Brooklyn, N. Y.

VI. FOREIGN EPISCOPAL RESIDENCES 109
Rev. J. E. C. SAWYER, Troy, N. Y.

EDITORIAL MISCELLANY:

CURRENT TOPICS 123
FOREIGN, RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY .. 140
MISSIONARY INTELLIGENCE 145
THE MAGAZINES AND REVIEWS 151
BOOK NOTICES 157

NEW YORK:
PHILLIPS & HUNT.
CINCINNATI:
CRANSTON & STOWE.
SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, POSTAGE INCLUDED, $2 50.

[Entered at the Post-office, New York, N. Y., as second-class mail matter.]

THE LIFE OF JOHN WESLEY.

BY JOHN TELFORD, B.A.

12mo. $1 50.

To Mr. Telford must be ascribed the merit of producing the first satisfactory life of Wesley. He possesses the genuine biographic instinct, which is more than can be said of most who have essayed the task. He has related the wonderful life-story with a beautiful enthusiasm tempered by sound critical judgment. There is a fine freedom and glow in the style, and the result is one of the most fascinating books of the season. —Christian Leader.

Mr. Telford has written the life of one of the most remarkable men that ever lived in a manner irresistibly fascinating. There is not an uninteresting page from beginning to end.—Methodist New Connexion Magazine.

We are charmed with this volume, which is a thoroughly readable and well-executed work. It is the handiest life of Wesley that has yet appeared.—Christian Miscellany.

It is positively delightful to find a book which tells an unvarnished tale. Mr. Telford's style is singularly clear and luminous, concise and crisp. He groups his facts with an artistic skill all too rare in biographical work, and, without the slightest pretense of fine writing, says what he has to say with manly grace.—Methodist Recorder.

Mr. John Telford has written a Life of John Wesley which will probably enjoy a lasting sale. It is comparatively brief, yet sufficient; for it is worked out with much studious care and literary skill.—Contemporary Review.

Mr. Telford has been specially successful in portraying the personal characteristics of Wesley, enabling us to realize the man as well as the work. Many interesting facts will be found in this volume which have appeared in no previous life of Wesley.—North British Daily Mail.

Mr. Telford has here produced a life of Wesley which may be read with interest by any one who has read every previous one that has been published.—Local Preachers' Treasury.

Wesley's life has always had a fascination for lovers of devout and helpful biographies. Mr. Telford's rendering of it will lose nothing in comparison with those of other workers in the same field; in fact, it will gain by such comparison, for it throws fresh light on the earlier part of the renowned preacher's career. It is written with a graceful ease and force of expression which carry the reader from chapter to chapter with deepening interest.—Christian.

Mr. Telford has contributed not a little to this better appreciation of the movement and the man, by his skillful and well written biography.—Nonconformist.

Mr. Telford has met one of the most urgent biographical needs of the day, and by the style and spirit in which he has done his work has achieved a very conspicuous success. He has given to the world, and not merely to his own community, a life of Wesley which every body will read, from which a just and eminently suggestive conception of a great historical figure may be formed, and to which the coming historian of Methodism, anxious to obtain carefully verified details of out-of-the-way facts, may turn with no little advantage.—London Quarterly Review.

It not only portrays Wesley in "his habit as he lived," but pictures the struggle of Methodism in his days, affords many curious and instructive glimpses of national manners, and furnishes altogether a concise and interesting sketch of a great episode in our religious history.—Daily News.

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Publishers, 805 Broadway, N. Y.
CRANSTON & STOWE, Cincinnati.

C. L. S. C.

COURSE OF READING

For 1887-88.

REQUIRED READINGS.

BOUND IN CLOTH.

History of the United States.
By EDWARD EVERETT HALE, D.D. $1.

American Literature.
By Professor H. A. BEERS, A.M. 60 cents.

Physiology and Hygiene.
By Dr. M. P. HATFIELD. $1.

Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation.
By J. B. WALKER, LL.D. 16mo, 60 cents.

Readings from Washington Irving.
16mo, 40 cents.

Classical German Course in English.
By Dr. W. C. WILKINSON. $1.

History of the Mediæval Church.
By J. F. HURST, D.D., LL.D. 16mo, 40 cents.

The Chautauquan. $1 50.

On receipt of price will send free of express or postage.

GARNET SERIES NO. 3.

Comprising four volumes of standard books relating to the subjects in the current year's readings of the C. L. S. C. course.

1. Grandfather's Chair. By NATHANIEL HAWTHORNE.
2. Essays. By RALPH WALDO EMERSON.
3. Fireside Travels. By JAMES RUSSELL LOWELL.
4. Tales of a Wayside Inn. By H. W. LONGFELLOW.

The four volumes in a neat box for $3.

CONTENTS.

PAGE

BISHOP WILLIAM LOGAN HARRIS 9
Rev. James M. Buckley, D.D., Editor of The Christian Advocate, New York.

ON SOME CONTROVERTED POINTS IN THE EXPOSITION OF THE SEVENTH CHAPTER OF ROMANS 29
Rev. Dr. Henry A. Buttz, President of Drew Theological Seminary, Madison, N. J.

CHURCH UNION AND ANGLICAN ORDINATION 45
Rev. T. B. Neely, Ph.D., D.D., Pottsville, Pa.

JABEZ BUNTING, D.D 66
Rev. Edward Barrass, M.A., Hampton, Ontario, Canada.

EPISCOPAL FUNCTIONS IN METHODISM 86
Rev. George P. Mains, Brooklyn, N. Y.

FOREIGN EPISCOPAL RESIDENCES 109
Rev. J. E. C. Sawyer, Troy, N. Y.

EDITORIAL MISCELLANY:

Current Topics 123
Ethics and Æsthetics, 123; The Preachers' Meeting and Dr. McGlynn—Theories of Henry George, 129; Sentimental Sociology, 134.

Foreign, Religious and Literary 140

Missionary Intelligence 145

The Magazines and Reviews 151

Book Notices 157
Morris's Is there Salvation after Death? 157; Fairbairn's Doctrine of Morality in its Relation to the Grace of Redemption, 158; Dorchester's The Why of Methodism, 159; Taylor's Scottish Pulpit, from the Reformation to the Present Day, 160; Smyth's Christian Facts and Forces, 161; Exell's Bible Instructor, 162; Spurgeon's According to Promise, 162; Van Dyke's Story of the Psalms, 162; Vincent and Holway's Lesson Commentary on the International Sunday-school Lessons for 1888, 163; Bowne's Philosophy of Theism, 163; Muller's Science of Thought, 164; Andrews's Brief Institutes of General History, 165; Knox's Boy Travelers on the Congo, 166; Williams's History of the Negro Troops in the War of the Rebellion, 166; Memoirs of Wilhelmine, Margravine of Baireuth, 166; Laffan's Engravings on Wood, 167; Fradenburg's Beauty Crowned, 167; Miscellaneous, 168.

Eng'd by A.H. Ritchie

William L. Harris